

PORTUGUESE COASTAL ROUTE | OCTOBER 2-9, 2027

Camino cost: €995 | Reservation deposit: €100

A spiritual journey

For more than 1,000 years, Christian pilgrims have walked the Camino de Santiago as a journey of faith, reflection, prayer, discovery, and renewal.

Our Camino will include Christians, family members, friends, and those who are searching spiritually. Everyone is welcome. We will journey from Baiona, Spain, along the Portuguese Coastal Route through Galicia to Santiago de Compostela.

This is a personal pilgrimage experienced within a community of fellow travelers. Each pilgrim is encouraged to walk the Camino in the way they feel inspired.

Some may choose to walk together, while others may prefer periods of solitude. Some will walk more quickly, while others will take their time, stopping along the way to rest, pray, reflect, enjoy a café, visit a church, or simply appreciate the beauty of the journey.

There are no group expectations regarding walking pace, departure times, or arrival times. Each pilgrim determines their own rhythm for the day.

On Sunday, October 3, the first morning of our pilgrimage, we will offer a morning devotional for anyone who would like to participate.

Your hosts: Robert and Michele Carrillo. They will be available throughout the Camino to encourage participants, help meet needs, and provide assistance when necessary.

2027 is a Compostela Holy Year. Lodging is expected to fill well in advance, so please reserve your place early.

OCTOBER 9-10, 2027 | ADDITIONAL €200 PER PERSON

One additional day and night. Includes the Finisterre excursion and an additional overnight stay in Santiago de Compostela.

Join us for a special final adventure after completing this sacred pilgrimage.

After arriving in Santiago de Compostela, many pilgrims traditionally continue their journey toward Finisterre, whose name comes from the Latin Finis Terrae - "the end of the earth." For centuries, pilgrims have traveled beyond Santiago to the Atlantic coast as a meaningful final step in their pilgrimage.

On October 9, we will travel together by bus to the coast, enjoy the magnificent scenery, share a leisurely lunch, and have time to reflect on all we have experienced before returning to Santiago de Compostela for one final evening and an additional overnight stay.

It is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the journey, celebrate its completion, enjoy the beauty of the Galician coast, and savor one final day together as pilgrims.

October 10: Departure from Santiago de Compostela.

The Camino is more than a walk

The Camino invites us to slow down. To listen. To pay attention. To encounter God, ourselves, one another, and the world around us in a different way. For eight days, we leave behind many of the distractions of ordinary life and simply walk - one step at a time.

Buen Camino!
